I don't learn from my mistakes.

I'm still not careful enough...

...and the Gloom has destroyed another refuge.

Not to mention losing my stone...

Mama?

When will we go back home?

Soon...

It's still too risky to return to the island for now.

But I hope we'll soon be able to catch up with some of our sisters.

Maybe she was right in the end...

I can do something to stop this.

It's time to go back there!

The island...

And to try and talk to myself less.

Oh! Like--
Yes, yes... What's yours?

I... I'm Anto.

Are you... Uh... Do you do magic?

What makes you say that?

Well... I don't know... The stick.

Ha ha!

Yes... I'm a Glimmer.

I'm trying to find my clan... But the path goes through this fog and--

NO!

You mustn't go into the fog!

Grandma and I were supposed to find our tribe here, at the foot of the Great Mushroom...

But when we arrived, there was nothing... Just the fog!

Grandma told me to wait here. Then she went into the fog to see...

But the fog ate her...

Is this other bag yours?

Uh... That's Grandma's... Why?

Because we're going to go find her!

Hang on...

That's a bad idea...

We shouldn't be here...

Plus... I'm sure there're ghosts... I've heard them...

Lunar Nomads are scared of ghosts?

How do you know I'm a Nomad?

When I was little, my mother bought the ingredients for her potions from a Lunar peddler...

He often talked to me about the Great Mushroom...

Yes, it's our totem.

Grandma was going to show it to me for the first time but--

MMMooOOo°AAAh

Did you hear that?!?

What is it...?

What...?
But...
How did this happen?
Hmm... Look!
I think it's been infected by the Gloom. The accumulation of its spores are what caused the fog!
And its roots...
Ona...?
Anto!!
I don't feel so good...
NO!!!
MMMoooOoAAAAAhhh

Anto...!!

Ona... But what's...?

The mushroom's all better.

Huh...?

The ghosts, look... They're Lunar Nomads!

Anto...?

Grandma!!!

I knew the fog didn't eat you...

Anto... But how did you get here?

Thanks to Ona! She saved you. She's a Glimmer!

Thank you... Ona the Glimmer! How can we show you our gratitude?

A worthy name...

Um, well...

When I was little, my mother made a highly powerful fertilizer with seeds that a peddler from your tribe sold her...

Ah... Seeds of the moon.

You're lucky. These are my last ones!

Oh, thank you!

You're... You're leaving?

Yes, I still have a lot to do.

But... I would've loved you to stay with us for a while...

It looks like you have a crush, my dear?

NO! Nothing like that! No way!

It's just that... I'm not brave like you...

I wanted you to teach me.

But you're already brave, Anto... You followed me into the fog, right?

I'm sure you'll be as fearless as a Glimmer one day!

The Pirates

Hey!
Oh, hey!
Do you hear me?!
OK, well, terrific...
Really terrific...

So much for being a Glimmer...

I'll never get to the island and it'll all be my fault and--

Aiiiiiik!

BM!

BRRRR...

Sorry, Dini...

It'll work! First we get my staff back to get out of here, then--

Good luck... They put all the weapons in another room.

Otherwise, you can bet we would've left long ago!

I... I don't use my staff as a weapon...

No, no... Of course not... And I use my sword to pick my teeth...

HA HA HA

Come on... Don't sulk... In the end, we're still stuck here...

But why... What do these creatures want with us?

Ha ha... You don't see where we are? It's the old Abor fortress-factory!

What?! But... I thought it had been abandoned?

We came here to do business in the area, but our partner had... a few small problems... While we were trying to figure out what happened, these two Guardbots took the opportunity to capture us during the night!

Guardbots?

Yep! The one with the big arms grabs everything that moves. The pointy hat transports everything it can fit in its canister. They're programmed to pull in anything that gets too close to the fortress.

But the fortress was destroyed, right?

Look...

The fortress has been shut down for years... But their system stayed active. They still think they have to defend it.

You'd have to lower the lever to turn them off.

Well, I dunno. Maybe that'd shut down the power and open the cages?

And what would that change? We'd still be in cages.

Whatever! We're too high up anyway!

Can you fly there at least?

It's too far for my telekinetic power... You can do it, Dini!

BNG!

That's it, sweetie. Watch out for the cages.

Bu... but... What difference does it make?

I... I... did it... I did what you asked me to do!

No, Ona...

Look.

You and I have magic in us... a special kind of magic... That needs nothing but ourselves...

You have to learn to master that magic!

I know... But it's really hard!

It's easier with my staff... Plus it's much quicker!

"It's much quicker..." Do you know who said that all the time?

Verdurion...

He also wanted to do things more quickly... More easily... And all that to what end?

He caused all this... He's the one who made us leave...

I couldn't stop him.

Listen... I'm just trying to prepare you for what's in store for you.

One day... whether you like it or not... you'll have to confront it.

That day, Ona... you'll understand the importance of your name.

So, Muffin, still nothing there?

But still no trace of your island!

Yes... Water... Lots of it!

Doesn't matter!

By the way...

Here's your book back... It was super interesting!

Ah, did you find information about your bat...?

Yes, a lot...

Chiroptera Dini-Dae - Eats minerals.

The only mammal capable of flight. Friendly and faithful.

Aaaah, Dini! I just understood!

Aha, yes, I wasn't wrong about her species!

That reminds me, Gee asked to see you.

Ah! OK, I'm going. See you later!

POP

Uh... Water!

Pfff... You're no fun!

There's not much wind at the moment... I thought we'd reach your island sooner.

Doesn't matter. I like being with you.

You know, you can stay with us if you want!

You think so?

Of course! You fit in really well, you look better in those overalls than me when I was little, everyone likes you...

I like you.

This crew is like my family... And I'd be happy if... if someone like you were part of it.

Someone who can destroy a 30-foot chimney on her own!

Wh... What are you talking about?

Ona... Seriously... Surely you don't think we met by chance?

My crew and I were transporting oil that this monkey produced. We were selling it for a fortune!

When we saw the ruined chimney, I was mad with rage. You were making us lose a lot of money...

It was Frank-Frank who found one of your seeds on the ground, in a spot where nothing was growing. It was strange.

We followed your trail, until the Guardbots captured us when we weren't paying attention.

Luckily you weren't very careful either... Little Glimmer!

Gee... What are you up to?

I guessed you were a Glimmer from the start...

And rest assured, I don't blame you for the chimney. You couldn't have known.

But now that you do know, maybe you could find a way to compensate me...

Someone like you onboard could be useful for my business!

Gee... I'm sorry, but I can't. I have to go back to the island. I have things to take care of.

You have to understand...

Don't worry, Ona, I understand...

I understand perfectly.

SNAP!

chpoc

Thanks, Remise.

Don't mention it, Cap'n.

She's awake!
Hey, Ona!
What...
Ha ha ha!
Sleep well?
Gee, what's going on?

Where's my staff?

I'm keeping it with me for now, but did you notice? I let you keep the overalls!

Ha ha ha!!

I'm giving you one last chance! Look behind you, little Glimmer...

I promised to bring you here. I always keep my word!

I'll give you a choice.

Dini!

You know... A bat like this could be very useful, once grown up!

Aiiiiiiik!!

Dini, calm down!

Everything's alright!

OK, Ona, the choice is simple!

Either you come back onboard and work for me but say farewell to your island...

Or I keep your flying mouse...

I thought we were friends, Gee...

We ARE friends, Ona. But the survival of my crew comes first!

I promise I'll find a solution and come back, Dini!

That's nice. You "never lose hope"...

Do you miss the island?

It depends... I mostly miss certain things...

Hearing the roar of the ocean...

Gazing at the light, finding its path between the trees...

I miss hearing the forest breathe...

Do all our sisters still hate us?

Oh, Ona, no, sweetheart. Of course, not.

It's just that sometimes, when people think they're doing the right things for the wrong reasons... It's hard to agree.

I didn't think the Gloom was a good thing...

We know that now, but in the beginning, we couldn't be sure. You had to listen to your heart.

Some Glimmers thought they could use it to do good. None wondered where the Gloom came from...

Nobody Knew?

No, nobody... Except one.

Verdurion

Oh no...

It can't be... Everything's infected here, too.

We know, Captain. But poor Dini, all alone down there...

Couldn't we at least bring her in the cabin with us?

And give her something to eat?

Alright, alright! If you insist!

But I'm warning you, if she keeps cry--

KRAK!

What!!

It's Dini! She's escaping!!

She did this?!

Don't just stand there! We have to get her back!

Don't ya worry, Captain! We still have Ona's staff. Perhaps we could use it to--

Brouuu!

The Circle of Crystal... The heart of the island.

This is where every Glimmer comes to collect her crystals--the source of our power...

Very sick...

The crystals are very sick...

Very sick...

Are... Are you... Verdurion?!

This is all your fault!!

Aaah, no, no... I didn't do anything! Nothing at all! Poor Verdurion!

Stop! I know you're the one who freed the Gloom. You did it on purpose to "improve" magic!

And now everything's infected! Everything! Even the island! Even the crystals!

No, no... Not "on purpose"! Never "on purpose." Freed... by mistake! By mistake!

You're lying! My mother told me that--

A long, long time ago... I dug underground... Not to "improve," but to learn, to discover!

And there, underground... I discovered it...

The Gloom!

I was so scared. The Gloom came from everywhere. It was everywhere, underground! It wanted to get out!

I went back up to warn the Glimmers, to tell them that the Gloom was coming... That they had to contain it with magic.

But the Glimmers panicked. They were afraid for themselves and their loved ones. They didn't understand the Gloom!

Some stayed to control it. Others wanted to protect their children and left...

The Glimmers who stayed... Where are they?

Gone... Only Verdurion is left.

Poor Verdurion...

No... No...
I don't believe you! It's you... You created the Gloom! That's the truth...

No... No...
Never!

The Gloom was waiting...
It was waiting underground... It would have gotten out no matter what.

And no one could have stopped it!

My staff!

Your staff, your bat, your mother... Anyway, you're always losing your things!

You should be more careful!

You shouldn't be here! You aren't Glimmers...

Hoo boy, Ona! Be serious for a split second. Your village is in ruins. Wake up!

We'll do this fair and square. You against me. The winner gets Dini!

And you'll keep your word?

Let's go, little Glimmer. Show me what you're made of!

Give me time to choose the right stone and I'm all yours, Gee!

Come on, Ona... Are you calling me a liar?

Captain...

What!!

I don't feel so good...

WHAT...?

Gee... What's going on?

What did you do?!!

Me?
Nothing at all!!!
It's the Gloom!

The Gloom! What are you talking about! The Gloom doesn't affect people this quickly!

And why isn't it doing anything to you?

I don't know. Maybe it's because I'm a Glimmer and you aren't...

It's the island that's rejecting you!

Ona! I swear you're going to--

AAHHH!!!

Gee!!

Ona... Please, save my crew!

OK...

Don't worry, Gee, it'll be alright!

Training?

Yes, the training from before...

I'm sorry I fail all the time. I know it's important...

But I'm going to succeed! I'm going to do it the way you say, you'll see!

You're going to be proud of me!

Oh... Ona.

My wonderful, incredible, fantastic little Ona...

I'm asking a lot of you, aren't I?

Well, no... It's only natural.

You're my mama. You're teaching me do things correctly!

Ona...
I... No...

I don't know everything.

They always taught me to do things a certain way, telling me it was the right way to do them.

But you, Ona...
You don't do things the "right way."

I mean... Look at you. You're creative. You trust your instincts. You follow your heart.

It's you who's teaching me things!

You know why I named you Ona, don't you?

Yes, it's the name of our world! It's because I have to protect it...

No, sweetie... No...

It's because you're my world.

I'll always be proud of you.

When there's nothing left growing... When there's nothing left living...

And when the Gloom seems to have destroyed everything...

Above all, don't worry. Don't despair...

There's probably a solution somewhere...

I'll find it for you...

Never lose hope.

Mama...

Hey, little Glimmer. Are you alive?

Huh...?

SHE'S ALIIIIIIIIVE!!!

WOOOOHOOO!

ONA!!

You were incredible! I don't know how you did it. You saved us! You are SOOOOO good!

There, that's the last one!

I've recovered a piece of each crystal I lost.

And above all...

My little Glimmer.

Before he disappeared, Verdurion told me that the Gloom will still exist as long as the Belladonna crystal stays in the middle of the circle.

But destroying it will also make Glimmers' magic disappear...

...forever.

That's not the solution...

If I managed to pacify the island, I should be able to pacify the rest of the world some other way!

And maybe the Glimmers who left the island can help us...

How about going to look for them?

My thoughts to the delightful Atelier Sentô, Maison Petit Renard, and Librairie Flagey.
To Grandma and Pierrot.
Thank you to all the artists and works that inspired me, and whose influence you will have recognized while reading.
